- Tuscany -

4 days
3 overnights

For its landscapes and artistic legacy, Tuscany is one of the most alluring regions in the world. The Renaissance was born here, and still today Art is in the air and shows in every way of human expression: architecture, fashion, design and cuisine. Come and find out in which way You will be inspired!

DAY 1 - SWISS ALPS - ITALY

Early morning departure, head south via Basel, Lucerne and the scenic Swiss Alps. Early evening we will arrive in Tuscany.

DAY 2 - FLORENCE

All day dedicated to Florence, cradle of the Renaissance. Follow your guide to the magnificent cathedral, Giotto's bell tower, the Baptistry's heavy "Gates to Paradise," sculpture -studded Signoria Square, and Michelangelo's celebrated David in the Accademia Museum. Time to explore and to browse through the shops. Florentine leather goods and gold jewelry are attractive buys.

DAY 3 - SIENA - SAN GIMIGNANO

After breakfast, a pleasant drive through the rolling hills of Chianti to

Sienna. Our walk through ancient, narrow streets will bring us to beautiful Piazza del Campo, site of the biannual Palio, Siena's popular medieval style horse race. Some free time, then on to learn about the fine art of making Chianti wines at a Chianti winery and taste some of their delicious wines. Later, we will stop at San Gimignano, the most picturesque of Italy's perfectly preserved medieval towns. Tonight, join in for our Tuscan Gala Dinner with serenata live entertainment and wine (€45).

DAY 4 - PISA - RETURN

After check out, we drive to Pisa, located near the coast. The city is mainly known for its architectural curiosity, the Leaning Tower. Sightseeing, then time for last minute shopping until we head back north. Around midnight we will return to Ramstein.
