Medieval Dinner & Entertainment at Cochem Castle

Nestled in the Mosel Valley behind a few rocky hills is the charming town of Cochem. This quaint town has something for everyone. Discover the fairy tale Reichsburg Castle, perched on a hill 330 feet above the Mosel River. This castle's history dates back to 1000 A.D., and local legend claims it to be the castle of Sleeping Beauty.

After arriving in Cochem, take time to explore the market and the stores throughout the walking zone with their attractive wares. Meet the RTT guide to walk up to the castle for an informative tour, followed by a medieval-style dinner in the Knight's Dining Room. Dinner consists of rye bread with lard spread, beef soup, a turkey leg, flat bread, cheese, nuts and grapes. Wine will be served in a wine mug, which you take home as a souvenir of the evening's excitement. Beer and non-alcoholic beverages are also available. During the meal, relax with entertainment and stories about medieval table manners and eating habits, and with songs by travelling minstrels. The highlight of the evening is the Knight Games, with lots of fun for everyone!

Return to points of origin at approximately 1 a.m.
