Cochem Castle Family Special

Nestled in the Mosel River Valley behind a few rocky hills is the charming town of Cochem. This quaint town has something for everyone. Discover the fairy tale Reichsburg Castle, perched on a hill 330 feet above the Mosel River. This castle's history dates back to 1000 A.D., and local legend claims it to be the castle of Sleeping Beauty.

After arriving in Cochem, see some of the medieval houses and pedestrian shopping area in the town of Cochem before walking up to the Castle, high above the town center. At the castle, a special tour will show our travelling princesses and robbers many exciting corners of the castle, including the castle tower, parapets and the dungeon! The medieval life within these historic walls will be explained and relived. Construction of the medieval defences will be visually explained. There is nothing scary, but interesting information and entertainment for our knights and damsels who are visiting.

Visitors are encouraged to come in costume of medieval knights, ladies, servants and farmers, as well as ghosts or robbers! Medieval-style dinner follows in the Knight's restaurant or hall, there guests eat as in the days of old - with their fingers - end enjoy our special medieval menu of chicken legs with flat bread, and modern additions of apple juice soda and an ice cream stick dessert.

Return to points of origin at approximately 8 p.m.
