

Cochem Castle

2017 & Medieval Dinner Tour

Our trip begins with direct travel to the Mosel Valley through some of the country's most picturesque landscapes and most productive wine regions.

After arrival in Cochem, our first stop will be the much awarded historical Mustard Mill. Dating back to the 18th century, mustard miller Wolfgang Steffens produces outstanding gourmet mustards, using selective and historical recipes and procedures. Peek over the miller's shoulder and see for yourself how mustard is made (demonstrations & sampling).

After some free time in town, we venture on to the castle perched high above the town.

Burg Reichsburg is over 1,000 years old and proclaimed by local lore to be the original "Sleeping Beauty" castle. After a castle tour with a local guide we will dig into a festive medieval-style dinner (included) in the Knight's Dining Room. This tasty regional meal offers rye bread with schmaltz spread, beef soup, a turkey leg, flat bread, cheese, nuts and grapes. Wine will be served in a souvenir wine mug (beer and non-alcoholic beverages will be available). We will be entertained throughout the meal with stories about medieval table manners and enjoy live entertainment before the Knight's Games begin after dinner.
