

Innsbruck & Swarovski Crystal World

2019 The Heart of Tyrol

Visit Innsbruck, the beautiful capitol of Tyrol in Western Austria!

Innsbruck is flanked on all sides by the majestic Alps, fondly referred to as Innsbruck's natural skyscrapers and visible from almost every corner in town. Innsbruck is also an internationally renowned winter sports center. The city has hosted many events including the 1964 and 1976 Winter Olympics. Our first stop will be the Swarovski Crystal World and factory outlet where you view breathtaking Swarovski-encrusted art installations, see the "world's biggest crystal" (137 pounds) and the world's largest Kaleidoscope, and later buy crystal jewelry and figurines.

Upon arrival in Innsbruck, we'll start with a walk through old town, where our guide will point out the most important sights such as the Stadtturm, St. Jacobs Cathedral, Hofburg Imperial Palace and Hofkirche (not included) where a display of 28 larger than life size statues of legendary royal ancestors are shown, including King Arthur of England.

During your free time we invite you to visit the famous Swarovski Store, sit down at the well-known Café Sacher and try the famous chocolate cake of the same name (not included), visit the Bell foundry of the Grassmayr family, or take the hybrid funicular (not included) up to Hungerburg, passing stations designed by architect Zaha Hadid, and ending with a panoramic view over this jewel of a city.
