Innsbruck
& Swarovski Crystal Worlds

2019/2020 Holiday Special

Beautiful Innsbruck is flanked on all sides by the majestic Alps, which are fondly referred to as Innsbruck's natural skyscrapers and are visible from almost every corner in town. Our first stop will be the Swarovski Crystal World Museum and factory outlet where you can buy crystal jewelry, figurines and see the "world's biggest crystal" (137 pounds) and the "crystalscope," an enormous kaleidoscope made of Swarovskis. Upon arrival in Innsbruck, you will have free time to explore the all the important sights such as the Stadtturm, St. Jacobs Cathedral, Hofburg Imperial Palace and Hofkirche.

Innsbruck also hosts five Weinachtsmärkte (Christmas markets) over the course of the season, each with a slightly different feel. Traditionalists should warm themselves with Glühwein (mulled wine) and a handful of candied almonds in the Old Town. Gem hunters will delight in the 5 meter tall Swarovski Tree in the Marktplatz and the vivid mountain crystal on Maria-Thresien-Strasse, and architectural enthusiasts may take the hybrid funicular (not included) up to Hungerburg, passing stations designed by architect Zaha Hadid, and ending at a market with a panoramic view over this jewel of a city.
